

Learning Resource Centres

The Study Agreement

Aim

Our aim is :

- To make each Learning Resource Centre a pleasant and stimulating place to study, where all students and staff feel comfortable and supported and can work to their full potential
- To make available an appropriate library and information skills programme to support learning and teaching

Respect

We respect you...

By providing:

- Helpful and skilled guidance
- Access to a variety of resources, services and facilities to support your learning
- A range of study environments to suit your individual needs
- Responsive and co-operative staff
- Support and assistance in developing your library and information skills
- An opportunity to give your views and recommendations

Respect

You respect us...

By :

- Using the LRC to support your studies and student interests
- Using authorised software and appropriate web pages only
- Ensuring the safety of equipment and resources by not eating; drinking water is allowed
- Following the instructions of the LRC staff.

Respect

Respect each other...

By :

- Behaving appropriately and maintaining a minimum noise level
- Showing consideration for other students
- Leaving furniture and equipment in its original position
- Appreciating other students' alternative ways of studying

Keep to the Agreement

If students persistently break the agreement staff are entitled to follow the College's disciplinary procedure which can result in suspension of use of the LRC and its resources. By working together we can create a positive and pleasant environment.
